Eric represents clients across various industries, with a particular emphasis on the sports and real estate sectors.

In the sports industry, he serves as a trusted advisor to stadium owners and operators, professional sports franchises, and corporate sponsors, guiding them through complex transactional matters. Eric's experience includes negotiating and drafting naming rights agreements, sponsorship deals, and suite license agreements, ensuring his clients maximize value and achieve their strategic objectives.

In the real estate arena, Eric offers comprehensive counsel to clients involved in the acquisition and disposition of commercial properties. He is adept at structuring and negotiating a wide range of transactions, including loans, refinancings, and joint ventures. Eric's practical insights and attention to detail help clients navigate the intricacies of real estate deals, from initial negotiations to closing. His commitment to understanding each client's unique goals allows him to deliver tailored solutions that drive success and foster long-term relationships.
