Laura focuses her practice on intellectual property litigation, with a particular emphasis on patent litigation. She also advises clients in trademark, trade dress, trade secret, and unfair competition matters.

Laura has litigated cases in federal courts across the US, as well as in state courts in Massachusetts and New Hampshire. She has particular experience understanding complex mechanical and manufacturing technologies, and frequently handles IP matters in the defense industry. In addition, she serves as outside general counsel to several closely held companies, in the defense and seafood industries.
