Gaby counsels health care clients on a variety of medical staff matters involving peer review, credentialing, workplace investigations, graduate medical education programs, and medical staff governing documents. Having previously served as corporate counsel at a California hospital system, Gaby has experience managing medical staff and resident matters from both the in-house and external counsel perspectives.

Gaby also previously helped to manage the compliance and enterprise risk management program for a regional affiliate of a national nonprofit focused on providing reproductive health and primary care services, and increasing access to care.

Prior to attending law school, Gaby worked as a special education teacher in the San Francisco Bay Area.

Life Beyond the Law

Gaby enjoys exploring Los Angeles, traveling, and searching for the perfect dog beach for her lab mix, Sophia.
